FEKTY CATICASIAI

VOLUME 1.

68228

LEXINGTON, LAFAYETTE COUNTY, MISSOCRI, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 25, 1866.

Caucasian

NUMBER 1.

By JULIAN, ALLEN & Co.

Tance. Time advertisements will be charged at the fol-

SHUFF-TAKING.

What a moment! what a doubt! All my nose is inside out; All my thrilling, tackling caustic, Pyramid rhinocerostic, Wants to sneeze, and cannot do it. Wants to sneeze, and cannol do if.
How it yearns me, stings me, thrills me!
How with rapturous torment fills me!
Now says. "Sneeze, you goese: get thro' i Shee shee Oh! 'tis most del-ishilshi-ishi-most del-ishi!
(il.mg it, I shall sneeze till spring ')
Snaff is a most delicious thing.

MANONIE,

There are few places upon the Amerand has never visited that section of advanced to meet his comrades.

land routes to California, the traveler to the "golden land" met wit the only his fear, and he resolved to "do or die." The officer returned to his room. An fire, lest they should injure the child.

from one of the officers of Laramie, with if great caution was used. whom she had become acquainted, and In the buildings which he intended who had gleaned thus much from one of reaching, there gleamed a faint light ed with the Pawnee tribe, called Won- his silent movement gave evidence. A tenant. tum, or Wild Cat, who had solicited the shadow could not have been more noisehand of Manonie in marriage, but had less, nor a serpent more alert. He been spurned. It appeared as if the glided across the open space, crouching the work was doneproud nature of one nobly born had close to the ground, ever and anon thus solicited, for there was such an course. But his progress was unintered of Wontum as he saw Manonie leap Ohio prison. He claims to have gone the first writer in the colony." and fear.

resulted in an estrangement between pane, but all still was silent. him and the girl, and so she was comparatively left to herself.

Wontum, ascertaining this fact, lost no opportunity to urge his suit, and even to use threats, to all of which the maiden returned her first scornful part of Wontum was, that Manonie be- closely to the ground. gan to estrange herself from the Indian tiousness to prevent her meeting with The windows of the buildings were alarm.

of "Wild Bird." ant from the fort, who had heard her of the room peered forth in the sur- So it appeared on this occasion. story, or a portion of it, from the set- rounding gloom. It was difficult to At this moment a heavy tread of the tlers. He became her tutor; she, a tell whether the form was that of a "rounds" was heard below. Wontum is a mean thief." willing pupil. At first he felt an inter- male or female. est, then a sympathy, and, finally, found himself deeply in love. Nor was it a hopeless passion, for that love was restreamed a bright light, was also bish in the end of the hall, when she

The young man discovered in her a nature of singular purity, an intellect to the person below, she asked: of remarkable quickness, and a grace which might adorn a metropolitan salon. It was not strange that Henry Marshall loved her, and that Manonie anything especial?" soon became his wife.

As soon as this fact became known to Wontum, his savage soul was fired, the approach of my husband, should and he resolved upon revenge. He he arrive to-night. I am sure that I committed a great number of depreda-distinctly heard some person, or some-tions upon the peaceful overland travelers, which drew forth many of the troops from Laramie, but for over three years the savage had not been of the sash by the wind." able to reach father, wife, or the little child, who had been born a year after plan to draw the largest portion of the should not be at all surprised if there men in a dense thicket, he resolved to the kind, I will go for a guard." his object was to gain possession of nonie closed her window. Manonie and her child.

He found little difficulty in reaching and had ascertained the location of the Wontum crept from his hiding place, the Pawnees. He therefore advanced upon his lips. with extreme caution until the entrance His first impulse was to return for Manonie would follow him to the THE HEROINE OF FORT LARAMIE, tinel, leaning lazily against the wall, he could get everything arranged, and Softly he opened the door, and passed his gun resting by his side.

ican continent which combine so much to act, the huge door or gate swung be almost certain defeat. But he had ant. Then he raised the window, and varied beauty as do the plains of Lara- wide open with a heavy sound, and heard Blair say that if he heard any was surprised to find that daylight was mie. To one who is not familiar with the relief guard made its appearance. further noise he would go for a guard. dawning. In passing through, the the geography of Western Nebraska, The drowsy sentinel sprang up, and The savage approached the window little fellow awoke, and beholding him-

the country, it may appear singular | Wontum took advantage of the me it was not his purpose to have Mano up a wild ery. It was celosed and re- from the box. He gives as his object that a name like "plains" should be apmentary engagement of the soldiers, nie hear him. This done, he sprang echoed, from the mother's room. Inplied to a section situated in the very and of the heavy darkness, to glide back again. The sash was again deed, her shricks were so fearful that midst of the most prominent peaks and through the open gate. Then he found thrown up, and Blair called to know the entire garrison was soon aroused. ridges of the Rocky mountains. But bimself within the coveted enclosure, who was there. Of course no answer The Pawnee heard the eries of the the box might have used it against litical writer previous to, and during both united. Of the remainder, sup- given immediately after the spasm of the title is far from being inappropri- but upon strange ground. He had came. The lieutenant then crossed the mother, who had been awakened by him. been within the enclosure but once be-Fort Laramie is situated at the june- fore, and to gain some knowledge of its The savage heard his retreating foot- was to be lost. He therefore dashed tion of the north fork of the Nebraska, interior was of considerable importance steps, and quick as thought he sprang boldly across the open space toward or Platte river, and a stream of lesser to him. Of course he could not know through the open window into the note bearing its own name, Laramie the location of the several sentry-posts, vacant room. Then be concealed himand to move around, no matter with self beneath the bed. Hearing the prepared, that before pursuit had fairly In this far-off Western fort, for many how much caution, involved no small lieutenant giving directions for a thoryears after the discovery of the over- amount of danger. But the master- ough search, he grinned, in his devilish had mounted the outer wait. A dozen passion of his soul was stronger than glee, at the success of his ruse.

wastes of Nebraska, the sight must be teach him that here, as well as in the and retired to his couch for sleep. Indian villages, the better class of An hour passed, and the heavy in a lower window, and quite a number for her dusky friends, for she had been at rest save the guard and the occutreated with especial kindness by them. pants of those lighted apartments. There was, however, a brave connect. How well the savage understood this, been suddenly aroused within her when pausing to listen and to mark his man, and for several moments remainexhibition of indignation and disgust rupted, and at length he reached the and walked to the door. He opened from the wall and follow him towards that even Wontum slunk away in shame main building. Then he crept close to it and peered into the hall; a dim light the river. He knew that three years ington to Canada, and from thence to into the British Colo- whatever way it commences it is sure some relief. A spoonful of Gam Arabic a window from which gleamed a feeble was burning, but all was silent. He of civilized life had not altogether crad-The chief of the Pawnees, however, light. There was no sound to be stepped cantiously forth, and walked > must be captain's room." The savage pausing before the door of the apartreferred to Marshall, the husband of ment occupied by the mother and reached the stream, but plunging in, moment he heard a movement within. touched the latch, but the door was of the fate that awaited him.

Wontum, she attained the appellation closed in consequence. But the one at Satan sometimes appears to assist rectly over this one, and from which time to conceal himself behind the rub. Is it not a mean business for a great turned with all the ardor of an impul- thrown up, and a form appeared, which made her appearance. Tripping lightwas easily recognized as that of a fe- ly toward the top of the stairs, she ex- always be your friend." male. Apparently addressing herself claimed, as if speaking her thoughts:

> "Did you hear any unusual sound, Lientenant Blair ?" "I did, Manonie. Did you observe

"I did. I have not slept, and I have listened attentively, that I might hear thing, tapping upon your window." "I think we are both deceived. It must have been the rain, or the rattle exhibited by the savage. As he gazed meaning tone, "and in so doing, have and as there were those in Washington

"I think not. I have listened to every sound, and this one only lasted an instant, and during the whole night At length the villain had concocted a there has not been a sound like it. I

The Weekly Cantasian. to the fort. He reached it on a dark husband will probably return to-mor-child is restless, I magnify its danger-and stormy night. Concealing his row. If I hear any further noise of Yet I would not change again for

It was not supposed at Laramie that ment gazing into the darkness, and boy." more than a thieving expedition, and, savage started to his feet. In the dim She raised her clasped hands to heaven tel: of course, there was not the most re- light which shone through the window and her lips moved in humble, penitenmote idea that the fort would be at- could be seen the truly demoniacie ex- tial, thankful prayer. Then she arose tacked. The guards, therefore, were pression which lit up his face like a from her knees, pressed her little one's not as vigilant as in more dangerous fire from within. His prey was within hand gently to her lips, and laid herself his grasp. He had learned that the by its side, Wontum determined to enter the fort. husband of Manonie was still absent, Overcome with watching, she slep the outer works, but here the greatest room she occupied. He knew that the and approached the bed, clasping his possible obstacle presented itself. It garrison of the fort could number but knife for immediate use, should it be was after twelve o'clock at night, and a few men at that time, and if they required. Caretally he raised the child the very presence of an Indian at such were surprised, an easy victory could in his arms-so carefully that he did an hour would create suspicion at any be gained. The delighted monster not disturb either the mother or the time. But more especially now, that with difficulty restrained the wild little sleeper. This child was to be there were rumors of depredations by whoop of satisfaction which trembled his instrument of revenge on both of the fort was reached. The huge his men and make the attack. But he mountains for the recovery of her boy, door was closed. Beside it stood a sen- knew that daylight must come before and then both would be in his power. to attack even the little garrison while into the hall, down the stairs, and into While Wontum was considering how they were prepared for defense, would the apartment of the murdered lieutenagain, and tapped lightly. This time self in the arms of such a monster, set real marks of refinement, or even local He heard the massive door reclose, hour passed, when a corporal entered Leaping from the wall, the red monster Theater, he states that he went to the gress, with George Washington, Rich-through which a very refreshing breeze cates the gradual failing of all powers civilization, after leaving the Missouri. and then the tread of the sentries as the apartment and reported that noth-Therefore, when the fort is reached by they returned to their guard house. Into its waters he plunged, and after forcing an entrance, he made an jamin Harrison, Edmond Pendleton, ing largely of cold water when hot and case has become hopeless, At a certhe aiventurer, after a journey of four He had no knowledge of camp-life, but a thorough search had been made. In the lattice was elected thirsty. Great fatigue, great anxiety, tain point the body of the patient be-its soldiers and their families. Mano- was a long row of white buildings, or he crawled forth and seated himself by nie, or Wild Bird, as she was called by barracks, and to the right, at the other the bedside, gazing upon his intended the savages, was a "pale-face." Of her entrance, were others much more genparentage nothing was known, save teel in appearance, which he judged to sharp knife, and toyed with its point, that in her infancy she had been cap- be those he sought. To reach them, as if he wished to lengthen, as far as tured in Western Iowa. The girl her- he would be compelled to cross an open possible, the joy he felt at having one self was ignorant of the fact that she space, but the darknes was so intense hated foe thus in his power. He rose was of white blood, until she learned it that there was little danger of detection to his feet and bent over the sleeper. He raised the knife. It glittered in the light; and then he lowered it again.

At length the sleeper opened his eyes. He attempted to rise, but he felt the Manonie had considerable affection in those of the second story. All were sharp point of the weapon at his heart. "No speak loud!" exclaimed the sav-

"Me kill you-quick-there!"

The monster gazed upon the dead gloomp depth of the jungle. was for mountain would not be a barrier to before he found the steps leading to the chase. And so it proved, for the passes to the chase. And so it proved, for the passes to was not long or mountain would not be a barrier to before he found the steps leading to the chase. And so it proved, for the passes to the chase. child. He listened; not a sound was she swam for the opposite shore, with was to be done? If he attempted to ground by the side of the Indian, The weather, although early in the force it, she would be aroused, even if bing, but when he saw his mother, he some ten or twelve days previous to their dumb pets, and fed their own it. villages, and from her extreme cau-fall, was especially cold this night. she was asleep, and would give the sprang into her arms. She turned, as the execution of the plot. if to retrace her steps, but Wontum caught her, saving: which the savage had stationed himself his own in a wonderful manner, when At length she met a young lieuten- was now thrown open, and the inmate they are engaged in doing his work.

> listened; he also heard a movement in At this moment another window, di- Manonie's apartment, and had hardly

> > "Oh, perhaps he has come!" She bent over the railing and listened. While thus engaged, the savage passed, Wontum. unseen, into her room. He secreted himself readily behind the heavy curtains which draped the window, and awaited her return. appeared. It was the first time Won- without a struggle, but there was still and it was not without some emotion mined soul. on his part-something very seldom "You hold my boy," she said in a upon her, his face grew black as night, left my hands free." and he clutched his knife.

A Strange Story Repeated.

Some reference to the following cuworlds, and be what I was. Oh, no-. Ma- it would be terrible terrible. Don't rious statement was made by telelet me think of losing what I have graph a day or to ago, but the most Lieutenant Blair remained for a mo- found. Well, I will rest beside my important part of it-namely that the man King confesses to have been the the attack upon the train was anything then dropping the sash, retired. The mother knelt by the bedside, murder of President Lincoln, was omit-

> From The Louisville Democrat.1 On the 12th of last month Sterling King was presented before the police ourt upon the charge of having stolen a horse and buggy from the proprietor of a livery stable in Cincinnatti. The roof was clear against him, and be vas committed to jail to await a requi ition from the Governor of Ohio. He charged with having stolen several horses from the neighborhood of Porkopolis. King, after his committal made a statement, or what might be called a confession, of a most herrible father and mother. He felt sm film erime, namely, that of the murder of the President of the United States. King states that he was the man who killed President Lincoln. He says that he entered the theater as any other person, purchasing a ticket and

At the appointed time he entered the private box in Ford's Theater. Washshot him with a single barrel pistol, nocent, which he let fall at the time he leaped for using a single barrel pistol, that he was compelled to leave it behind him.

been commenced, the Indian actually muskets were leveled, but no one dared spirit invincible.

"Wild Bird, sit."

great warrior. He kill enemy."

"And steal little children.

"Does Wild Bird want her child?"

Wild Bird shall be his squaw, or he kill

boy. Come."
The savage seized the child. The

she cried.

"Be wife?"

already married?

a bound she sprang through the win- he failed to fultill his pledge.

dow. It was a fearful plunge, but she In regard to Booth, he says that follows: appeared not in the least injure I. With Booth had nothing to do with the kil- "He was one of the most enlightened the advancing column. It will have at Thirst,—In these and all advanced her hair streaming in the breeze, she ling, with the exception of assisting men in the colony. He was a man of first no single characteristic of Asiatic cases thirst creates intense suffering. darted for the spot where she had last him to make his escape from the City finished education, and of the most uncholera. But do not be deceived. It The sufferer craves water, and as sure as seen her boy. She almost flew over of Washington. He gives in his writ- bending habits of application. His is the cholera nevertheless. Wait a he gratifies the craving the worst the parade, and quickly reached the ten statement, which is now in the perfect mastery of every fact connect- little, give it time to get hold, say to symptoms return, and he falls a victim wall, dashed over it, and on into the hands of the military, the route he pur- ed with the settlement and progress of yourself, "I feel perfectly well, it will to the transient gratification. The only Poor Blair closed his eyes—grouned river—on into the belt of timber beyond such after leaving Washington. He the colony, had given him the name of soon pass off," and in a short time you safe way is to have a faithful friend or -disappearing like a meteor in the says that the man killed in the barn, "the Virginia antiquary." He was will repent of your folly in vain. I attendant, who will not heed his enand who is said to have been Booth, also a politician of the first class, a pro- have seen many a one commit suicide in treaties. The suffering may be, howfavored the suit of the brave, which resulted in an estrangement between resulted in an estrangement resulted executed as one of the conspirators, he says that she knew nothing of the con-He repeated the blows upon the win

the repeated the blows upon the win the daughters of George III. were less and raging thirst torment the sale from thirst will cease. In a large ma often weary of court etiquette, and used less and raging thirst torment the sale from thirst will cease. In a large ma
often weary of court etiquette, and used less and raging thirst torment the sale from thirst will cease. In a large ma
often weary of court etiquette, and used less and raging thirst torment the sale from thirst will cease. In a large ma
often weary of court etiquette, and used less and raging thirst torment the sale from thirst will cease. In a large ma
often weary of court etiquette, and used less and raging thirst torment the sale from thirst will cease. In a large ma
often weary of court etiquette, and used less and raging thirst torment the sale from thirst will cease. In a large ma
often weary of court etiquette, and used less and raging thirst torment the sale from thirst will cease. In a large ma
often weary of court etiquette, and used less and raging thirst torment the sale from thirst will cease. In a large ma
often weary of court etiquette, and used less and raging thirst torment the sale from thirst will cease. In a large ma
often weary of court etiquette, and used less and raging thirst torment the sale from thirst will cease. In a large ma
often weary of court etiquette, and used less and raging thirst torment the sale from thirst will cease. In a large ma often weary of court etiquette, and used less and raging thirst torment the sale from the sa He repeated the blows upon the window, this time with more vigor. In a see that the light was still burning. He watching her approach, little dreaming heard of, met regularly at the house of ings at Frogmore, near Windsor, a but all the social and moral feelings heard of, met regularly at the house of ings at Frogmore, near Windsor, a The result of this persecution on the art of Wontum was, that Manonie bears art of Wontum was, that Manonie bears are of wontum was, that wontum was, the wontum was, th sob- stopping at the house of Mrs. Surratt truded upon by company. They had he is to die, but cares not a snap about a day or two after the attack is con-

> "Not by you, monster that you are," "Wontum no monster, Wontum some connection or knowledge of the home of a private family. plot. His confession has been sent "Why have you thus taken my child? President.

"How can I be your wife, when I am "Ugh! Wild Bird must go with

He had not long to wait; the mother mother released her hold upon him made his escape from Covington he was for. So great was the discomfort of cine every four hours in diminishing of able experienced physicians. Havunder sentence as a guerrilla and spy. a royal household in those days. The doses 25, 20, 15, 10, 9, when careful ing been the only doctor of many poor He gave as an object for making the great good sense of Queen Victoria has diet is all that will be needed. confession that his name would be publatered many of these things for the In case the first does not stay the various remedies recommended by lished as arrested for horse stealing, better. who knew him, he would be sent for. The above statement was made by sued Gen. Terry, commanding in Virduce no injury while the diarrhealasts. that any treatment has been so sucand he clutched his knife.

The mother approached the bed, and been over the child. It was sleeping been contagon. The above statement was made by ginia, for ten thousand dollars damages, in the United States Court of the District of Columbia for an injury which for caution. I have never seen a case thought, and the a tightest interest and the diagrams and was made by ginia, for ten thousand dollars damages, in the United States Court of the District of Columbia for an injury while the diagrams as thought, and the a tightest interest and the savage. It was she sprang upon the savage. It was in the diagrams and was made by ginia, for ten thousand dollars damages, in the United States Court of the District of Columbia for an injury which the diagrams and was made by ginia, for ten thousand dollars damages, in the United States Court of the District of Columbia for an injury which the diagrams are thought, and the the slightest intimation of her inten-tion, the knife, which was still red with related to two or three of the prisoners trict of Columbia, for an injury which of diarrhea taken in season which was should be abandoned. All the mishere has not been a sound like it. I ampliant of arm the largest portion of the prisoners train at "Devil's Gate." The party sent to the assistance of the sufferer consisted of two-thirds of the sufferer consisted of two-thirds of the garrison of Laramis, and were commanded by Harry Marshall, who, for the first time had been separated from his wife and child during his marriage.

This was just as Workers had anticipated, and any against sufficient, and so, after committing the arm and hastened, with all possible speed, and hastened, with all possible speed, and hastened, with all possible speed, with all possible speed, and hastened, with all possible speed, with all possible speed, and hastened, with all possible speed, with all possible speed, and hastened, with all possible speed, and hastened, with all possible speed, with all possible speed, and hastened, with all possible speed, with all possible speed, and hastened, with all possible speed, with all possible speed, and hastened, with all possible speed, and hastened, with all possible speed, and hastened side of the prisoners deal the missended from his with the blood of poor Blair, was drawn from his best. It glistened a montent the broad of the prisoners and Policeans Bligh. Finding that the blood of poor three of the prisoners and Policeans Bligh. Finding that the blood of poor Blair, was drawn from his best leads to two of the resistance and the miss statement was likely to get him his statement was likely to get him his statement was likely to get him o'clock in the morning, after he had bled for several hours.

LATER. [From The Louisville Courier.]

King was confined, heard groaning other summer has passed. from the direction of his appartment. Having been providentially compell- controlled or the patient is lost. flowed a current of blood to the amount or be of practical use. of fully a gallon and one-half. He was 1st. On the approach of the cholera, the battle. In that position the enemy found in an entirely unconscious state. every family should be prepared to fires over you, but the moment you Dr. Knight was sent for who applied the treat it without waiting for a physician. rise you are hit. proper restorative agents, and succeed- It does its work so expeditionsly, that When the attack comes in the form ed, after great difficulty, in reviving while you are waiting for the doctor it of diarrica these directions will enable animation. During vesterday King is done. remained in a state of partial unconsciousness, but last evening his pulse prospect of his recovery.

Biographical Sketch.

RICHARD BLAND and if it had been a revolver those in Congress of '74, and a prominent po- diet, or to intoxicating drinks, or to which would stand ready, should be He further says that after he shot George county, Virginia, about 1713, large number. A strong, healthy, tem- cholera seige no one of us failed of conthe President and leaped from the box. He was for nine years a prominent perate, laboring man had a severe athe passed by several persons, but member of the House of Burgesses, of tack of cholera, and after the danger ing by, at most, the third dose. We one of whom he knew, Miss Laura Virginia. In 1768 he was one of a had passed, I was curious to ascertain have, however, invariably made use of Keene, and she did not know him. Ac- committee selected to remonstrate with the cause. He used nothing intoxica- large mustard, poultices of strong, pure cording to his statement, J. Wilkes the British Parliament on the subject ting. His residence was in a good lo- mustard applied to the stomach, bowels, Booth, whom it was said was the mur- of the taxation of the American colo- cality. But after some hours of hard calves of the legs, feet, etc., as the case derer of President Lincoln, was in the nies. In 1773 he was chozen one of labor and very profuse perspiration, he seem to requirerear of the theater awaiting with the committee of correspondence, and had lain down to take his customary Collapse. This is simply a more adhorses. From the vicinity of Fords in 1774 a delegate to the First Con- nap right against an open window, vanced stage of the disease. It indiresidence of Secretary Seward, and ard Henry Lee, Patrick Henry, Ben- was blowing. Another cause is drink- of life. It is difficult to say when a disappear. For a moment her strength and was knocked down, the old man ing thanks for this appointment, he be is as safe from the cholera as from Lecome decided and unmistakable, I Nor was the most attractive features dwellings were reserved for the officers, breathing of Blair convinced the savof the fort the presence of its officers, or those highest in rank. Before him age that he was sleeping. Cautiously a brief moment. In a second of time he struck the blow to silence him. most deprived of sight, whose great 4th. Symptoms of an Attack.—While er. I have repeatedly worked upon she threw off her weakness and put on His only regret seems to be that he ambilion had ever been to receive the cholera is prevalent in a place, almost such cases for hours with no permanent her strength—strength to do and dare did not kill the Secretary. He says plaudit of his country whenever he every one experiences more or less disall things. The woman became the that the statement published in the pa- should retire from the public stage of turbance of digestion. It is doubtless ties, the deeply sunken eye, the vanishper, that there were two persons in the life." Though he declined the ap- in part imaginary. Every one notices ing pulse are no signs that the case is affair, is false, as he is the man who pointment on account of infirmities the slightest variation of feeling, and hopeless. Scores of such cases in the were smothered. A flame gleamed in shot the President and made the at- and old age, he declared he should ever this gives an importance to mere trifles. recent epidemic have recovered. In her eyes almost supernatural. It was tack upon Secretary Seward. He says be animated "to support the glorious There is often a slight, nausea, or trannot the fire of madness, but the great that there was another person in the cause in which America is engaged." sient pains, or rumbling sounds when (a table spoonful every half hour), bot light of love and devotion which barns affair who has not yet been apprehend. Francis Lightfoot Lee was elected in no attack follows. No one is entirely the of hot water surrounding the paupon every true mother's altar. With ed who was to have killed Stanton, but his place. Wirt, in his "Life of Pat-free from these. But when diarrhea tient, especially the extremities, sinrick Henry," speaks of Mr. Bland as commences, though painless and slight, apisms and friction will often in ar in company with Booth, from Wash- In 1776 he published "An Inquiry commences with vomiting. But in and washing out the mouth will bring the Island of Cuba. He states his ob- nies," in answer to a pamphlet publish- to hold on. In a very few hours the water, or of camomile tea, may frecolonies. He died in Virginia in 1778. purplish, the countenance at first nerv- also be given, both as a beverage and affair, three of them have never been to get rid of it by spending their morn-cbbing. The intellect remains clear, than 24 hours. chickens, ran out and in, unattended. In some cases, though rarely, the We give the above statement of King and were entirely free from the tramwithout vouching for the truth of the mels of royalty. I have been there and the foolish person keeps about, ment, and it would appear that he had about, and everything looking like the fool dieth."

Royal Etiquette.

The wife of an officer in the army, Kin; is a man who during the war, and that barrel would become the per- In an adult, 30 drops on a lump of su- a paper of Gum Arabic. figured in both armies, being convicted quisite of some one of the household, gar, will often check the diarrhea. I lay no claim to originality in reby a military commission in each and and a fresh barrel would be tapped But to prevent its return, care should commending this course of treatment, sentenced to death. At the time he every time a glass of beer was called always be taken to continue the mediand have adopted it from suggestion

The Cholers.

BY DR. HAMLIN, CONSTANTINOPLE.

prison, adjoining that in which Sterling probably cross the Atlantic before an- each. But whatever course is pur

The prisoners immediately gave the ed to have a good degree of practical 2d. Mustard Poultices.-These should alarm and it was soon discovered that acquaintance with it, and to see it in be applied to the pit of the stomach ate effort to kill himself. With a small its invasions of Constantinople, I wish dened, knife he penetrated the brachial artery to make to my friends in Maine some 3d The patient, however well he may in his arm just above the elbow, whence suggestions which may relieve anxiety, feel, should rigidly observe perfect rest.

yourself or it will be fatal.

A member of the First Continental could be traced directly to improper first dose should be ejected, the second. the Revolution, was born in Prince pressed perspiration would comprise a vomiting has ceased. During this late window just in time to see her darling knife. He says that after young Sew- the tenth day of May, 1775. In return- causes. If one can avoid all of these I call the death odor, for when that has

it is realy the skirmishing party of hour or two work wonders.

COURSE OF TREATMENT.

A gentleman in Washington having of the bowels. Large doses will pro- During the recent cholers I cannot find until the 7th injection, which contains nearly a teaspoonful of laudas The patient recovered and is in perfect The cholera which has just left us health. At the same time I use pro Yesterday morning, about 4 o'clock after committing fearful ravages, is pared chalk in 10 grain doses with a the prisoners in the cell of the city making its way into Europe, and will few drops of landanum and camphor to it must be followed up, and the diarrhea

Sterling King had made a most desper- all its forms and stages during each of and kept on till the surface is well red-

To lie quietly on the back is one-half

every one to meet it successfully

2d. If you prepare for it, it will not 4th. But when the attack is mor come. I think there is no disease violent, and there is vomiting or vomwas stronger and there was a slight which may be avoided with so much iting and purging, perhaps also cramps certainty as the cholera. But provi- and colic pains, the following mixture King, we understand, has made a dential circumstances, or the thought- is far more effective and should always full confession, which was sent to Gen. less indiscretion of some member of a be resorted to The missionaries Mesers. Watkins, and by him forwarded to household may invite the attack, and Long, Trowbrige and Washburn, have Washington City, in which he states he the chalenge will never be refused. It used it in very many cases and with is certainly the man who attempted to will probably be made in the night, your wonderful success. It consists of equal assassinate Secretary Seward, and that physician has been called in another diparts of Laudanum, Tincture of Capsiington, where Mr. Lincoln was, and he Payne, who was hung, was perfectly in-rection, and you must treat the case cam, Tineture of Ginger and Tineture of Cardamon seeds. Dose, 30 to 40 3. Causes of Attack. - I have per- drops, or half a teaspoonful in a little sonally investigated at least a bundred water, and to be increased according to cases and not less than three-fourths the urgency of the case. In case the have never known the patient to recov-ever, safely alleviated and rendered en Sometimes, though rarely, the attack durable- Frequent gurgling the thoat ous and anxious, becomes gloomy and nourishment in small quantities, freapathetic, although a mental restless- quently. In a day or two the suffering The daughters of George III, were ness and raging thirst torment the suf- from thirst will cease. In a large ma-

> Diet .- Rice water, arrowroot, Syndtrolled. Camomile is very valuable in restoring the tone of the stomach. The Typhoid Ferer .- A typhoid state for a few days will follow all severe same, though there are some plausable just after they had left the place, and then suddenly sinks, send for a physicases. There is nothing alarming in circumstances connected with his state- found their work and their books lying cian, and before he arrives "dies as the this. It has very rarely proved fatal. Patience and careful nursing will bring it all right. The greatest danger is 1st. For Stopping the Incipient Diar- from drinking to freely. When the to Washington to be acted upon by the who had apartments in Windsor Cas- rhea. - The mixture which I used in patient seemed to be sinking, a little tle, said that the princesses would es. 1848 with great success, and again in brandy and water or arrowroot and There are now two prisoners in cape into her room sometimes, and beg 1855, has during this epidemic, been brandy have revived him. In this jail, Llewellin and Grimes, who say for a glass of beer to quench their used by thousands, and although the at-"Oh, yes. Give him to me and I will that they know something of the affair thirst, alleging, as a reason of their tacks have been more sudden and vi- have considered ourselves perfectly and it may be that the tale has been doing so, that if they asked for it in olent, it has fully established its reparamed and equipped, with a hand bag concocted for the purpose of getting their own home, they must wait for a utation for efficiency and perfect safe- containing mixture No. 1. mixture No. the three released from the charges barrel to be tapped; and that would ty. It consists of equal parts by meas- 2. (for vomiting, etc.) a few pounds of now against them, and have them turn- cause a new office to be created, for ure of 1. Laudanum and Spirits of powdered mustard, a bottle of brandy ed over to the military authorities. serving beer to them between meals, Camphor. 2. Tincture of Rhubarb. and a paper of a camomile flower, and families living near me, I have tried diarrhea, continue to give increasing physicians, but I have found none to be